Jayne Johnston Becomes Bride of James F. Miller

In a beautifully simple ceremony, performed Sunday afternoon in the presence of more than 500 wedding guests assembled at Central Evangelical church, Miss Jayne Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Johnston of 1404 Engracia ave., became the bride of Mr. James Franklin Miller, son of Mrs. Emily Miller, of 2222 Arlington ave. Rev. H. W. Roloff officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the lovely bride was gowned in white net over satin with long sleeves, high neck and bouffant skirt. Her finger-tips fell from a crown of orange blossoms and she carried a white Job's Daughters prayer book on which was a corsage of white gardenias with cascades of bouvardia.

Mrs. Hal Smith was matron of honor in yellow organza and carried a fan bouquet of apricot glow gladioli and blue delphinium. The bridesmaids, Mrs. H. H. Cowan and Miss Mary Frances Greaves of Redondo Beach, wore pertwinkle marquette and blue organza gowns, fashioned alike. Their flowers were semi-colonial bouquets of apricot glow gladioli. Little Jeneen Colombo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Colombo, dressed in pink net, was flower girl.

Reception at Bride's Home
 Jack Piper was the bridegroom's best man while Ormsby Miller and Harry Green, brother and cousin of the groom, ushered. Miss Phyllis Edwin of Redondo Beach played the wedding march and the accompaniment for Miss Bebe Mithau, who sang. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

At the buffet table, decorated with white and pink larkspur, Mrs. Howard R. Williams of Indianapolls, aunt of the bride, wearing a black afternoon dress and white carnation corsage, was assisted by the Misses Jean and Doris Kresse in white crepe, who poured. A beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride. Mrs. Johnston received her guests dressed in a beige crepe gown with tan accessories and a corsage of Cecile Bruner rose buds. Mrs. Miller wore navy with white accessories and gardenia corsage.

The bride graduated from Torrance high school, class of Winter 1936, and from Woodbury's Business College and attended Compton Junior College. She has been a member of the office staff of Columbia Steel Company for the past year.

Her husband, also a graduate of Torrance high school, is employed in the industrial engineering department of Columbia Steel. Mr. and Mrs. Miller left for a motor trip to Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania, where they will visit her grandparents and other relatives. They will make their home in Torrance.
